PRESS COMMUNIQUÉS.

Dated Part St. George, the 28th September 1932.

No. 124.—

In a Press Communication, dated 23rd January 1932, it was notified that certain views and similar propositions consisting any preparation of alcohol including various ayurvedic preparations given by the name of "aroma" and "masa" which contain a good percentage of alcohol fall within the definition of "liquor" in the Madras Prohibition Act, 1937, that no exemption had been notified in respect of them under section 15 of that Act, and that the import, export, transport, possession, manufacture, sale, or consumption of such preparations is prohibited even without a license was an offence, as also any advertisement of them anywhere in the presence of Madras, but that pending the preparation and publication of a list of such preparations, the Government were instituting proceedings for offences under the said Act in respect of them. Since then the Government have decided that all preparations of this class, whatever be their alcoholic content, should be placed on the same footing and have accordingly issued orders, having drawn that the preparations should not be sold in prohibition areas except

(a) by chemists,

(b) on the prescription of a qualified medical practitioner, and

(c) in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of license in the appointed form.

In view of these orders, it has become necessary to prepare and publish a list of the preparations as originally contemplated. The provisions of the Madras Prohibition Act, 1937, will be rigorously enforced and all traffic in such preparations except under the conditions referred to above will be dealt with as offences under the Act.

3. As regards the advertisement of preparations of this class section 5 of the Madras Prohibition Act, 1937, as now amended restricts the advertisement of liquor anywhere in the Presidency of Madras, to liquor specially approved in or medicinal value by the Madras Medical Council, or similar bodies outside this province or by such authority in respect of Indian medicine, as may be notified by the Government, and restricts the method of advertising such approved liquor in advertisements in medical journals or in notices and literature circulated exclusively to members of the medical profession. The preparations in question have not been exempted under section 16 and their advertisement except to the extent mentioned above is therefore an offence. In other words, no such preparation may be advertised in any manner anywhere on the Presidency land if any such preparation has been specially approved as of medicinal value by the Madras Medical Council or other bodies specified in section 6 as amended; that preparation may be advertised but only in medical journals or in notices or literature circulated exclusively to members of the medical profession. Infringement of these provisions will in future be dealt with as offences under the Madras Prohibition Act.

We have the honour to report that the Revenue, Capital and other accountants of the Madras Port Trust for the year 1937-38 have been audited under the rules prescribed by the Auditor-General and with reference to the notes and explanations laid down from time to time by the Madras Port Trust Board and the Government.

2. The opening balances at credit of the Revenue, Capital and other accountants on the 31st March 1936 have been verified with sale custody receipts of the Imperial Bank of India, Madras, and with the short-term deposit receipts of the Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China, Madras. balance from time to time standing to the credit of the said Minor Ports Fund;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Madras Minor Ports Fund Act, 1938.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Province of Madras.

Definition of "Minor Ports"
Fund.

2. In this Act, "Minor Ports Fund" means the common port fund of all the minor ports situated in the Province of Madras which by virtue of a direction of the Provincial Government for the time being in force, are regarded as constituting a single port for the purposes of sub-section (6) of section 36 of the Indian Ports Act, 1908.

Limit to accumulation in
Minor Ports
Fund.

3. The balance from time to time standing to the credit of the Minor Ports Fund shall not be accumulated beyond the limit of five lakhs of rupees and any sum now in excess or which may hereafter be in excess of five lakhs in the said Fund shall be credited to the revenue of the Province.

XV of 1938.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

There is an accumulation of about 50 lakhs of rupees in the Minor Ports Fund of this Province. This Fund is the common Port Fund of all the minor ports in the Province of Madras except Tuticorin which is governed by the Tuticorin Port Trust Act, 1926 (Madras Act II of 1926). Under the Indian Ports Act, 1908 (XV of 1908), as it now stands the money in the Minor Ports Fund can be expended only for the purposes of minor ports. Section 36 (2) of the Act, however, provides for the passing of any local law regarding the disposal of the balance to the credit of the Ports Fund Account. The Government consider that it is unnecessary to keep more than 5 lakhs of rupees in the Minor Ports Fund and that the balance might be credited to the general revenues of the Province and utilized for any purpose which the Government may deem fit, just as custom revenue, salt revenue and land revenue are used for general purposes by the Government (Central or Provincial) collecting such revenues.

The Bill gives effect to the above object.

YAKUB HASAN.

(By order of His Excellency the Governor)

P. APPU NAIR,

Secretary to Government, Legal Department.

Bill to be introduced in the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Madras.

Under the proviso to rule 73 of the Madras Assembly Rules, the following Bill together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons, is published for general information:—

A Bill to amend the Malabar Tenancy Act, 1929, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Malabar Tenancy Act, 1929, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; it is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Malabar Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1935.

2. For clause (g) of section 3 of the Malabar Tenancy Act, 1929 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(g) 'Garden land' means any land used principally for growing only coconut trees, or areca trees or both."

3. To sub-section (3) of section 23 of the said Act, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that such application or fresh application shall be made by the tenant within six months from the date on which he is served with a summons to appear and answer the claim in the suit, or if a decree is passed ex parte against the tenant in the suit and such decree is subsequently set aside, within six months from the date of the order setting aside the decree."

4. (1) In sub-section (3) of section 25 of the said Act, after the words "From the date of the termination of the previous lease, kottam, or kuzhikkannam" the words "or from the date of the expiry of the term of the completed period of twelve years from such termination, as the case may be" shall be inserted.

(2) To the same sub-section, the following illustrations shall be added, namely:—

"Illustration 1.—A lease was executed for the first time on the 1st July 1935 for twelve years. A renewal deed executed by the Court in 1938 will ensure for twelve years from the 1st July 1937.

Illustration 2.—A lease was executed for the first time on the 1st July 1910 for twelve years. A first renewal executed by the Court in 1938 will ensure for twelve years from the 1st July 1934.

Amendment of section 25,
Madras Act
XIV of 1938.

3. To section 25 of the said Act, the following provision shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that such offer shall be made by the tenant within six months from the date on which he is served with a summons to appear and answer the claim in the suit, or if a decree is passed ex parte against the tenant in the suit, and such decree is subsequently set aside, within six months from the date of the order setting aside the decree:

Provided further that if the suit for eviction is instituted by a mekharthidar, the tenant shall make the landlord a respondent to the application in which he offers to purchase the landlord's rights in the kudiyappa."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to make certain amendments to the Madras Tenancy Act, 1939 (Madras Act XIV of 1939), the necessity for which has been revealed by experience. The need for each of the proposed amendments is explained below.

2. Clause 2 (section 2 (g)).—"Garden land" is defined in section 2 (g) of the Act in general terms as meaning land used principally for growing fruit-bearing trees. Section 7 of the Act which provides for the determination of the "fair rent" payable by the tenant in respect of garden lands, however, provides that nothing shall be payable for the produce of fruit-bearing trees other than the coconut and the areca (see sub-section (1)). Thus on lands used principally for growing fruit-bearing trees other than coconut or areca, no fair rent can be fixed under the Act. It is not possible to treat such lands as "dry" for purposes of fixing a fair rent, since "dry" lands are defined as lands other than wet or garden and former lands, being used principally for growing fruit-bearing trees, fall within the definition of garden. A clear remedy thus results, and the object of clause 2 is to remove it and treat the land as a more equitable basis. It is proposed that only lands used principally for growing coconut and areca trees should be classified as "garden lands." The result of this alteration of the definition of "garden lands" will be to make lands used principally for growing other kinds of fruit "dry land." Consequently, fair rent will be payable for lands on which trees other than the coconut and the areca are chiefly grown at the rate fixed for dry lands by section 8 of the Act.

Clause 3 [section 23 (c)].—When a suit is instituted by a landlord to evict the tenant on the ground that the period of his tenancy has expired and that no renewal has been obtained, section 23 (a) gives the tenant a right to apply to the Court for the execution of a renewal deed. But the section imposes no time-limit for making the application. The absence of a time-limit has the effect of postponing the suit instituted by the landlord. Clause 3 adds a proviso to section 23 (a) which requires the tenant to apply for renewal within six months from the date on which he is served with a summons to appear and answer the claim in the suit, or in cases where no summons is first issued and subsequently set aside, within six months from the date of the order setting aside the summons.

Clause 4 [section 23 (3)].—Sub-section (3) of section 23 provides that a renewal deed executed by the Court under sub-section (3) of that section shall entitle the tenant to enjoy the holding for a period of twelve years from the date of the termination of the previous lease, license or tenancy. Cases are not uncommon in which renewal deeds have had to be executed by the Court more than twelve years after the expiry of the previous lease, license or tenancy. In such cases, the intention is that the starting point should be the last of the completed periods of twelve years from the termination of the tenancy. The amendment to section 23 (3) and the illustration added thereto bring out this intention clearly.

Clause 5 [section 33].—Section 33 gives the tenant of a landgrappa who is used in accordance by his landlord, a right to purchase the landlord's rights in the landgrappa, if it has been in the continuous occupation of the tenant or of his members of his family for ten years. To avoid delay in the disposal of the landlord's soil, it is proposed to lay down a term-limit within which the tenant should make his offer to purchase the landlord's rights in the kadyurappe. The limit of six months from the date on which summons is served on the tenant to appear and answer the claim in the suit or from the date of the order setting aside the ex parte decree, which has been adopted in clause 3, is also adopted here.

If a suit under section 33 is instituted by a mukhtaridur and the tenant allows to purchase the landlord's rights, it is necessary to make the landlord also a party to the proceedings as it is he and not the mukhtaridur who is primarily interested in the price offered by the tenant. Further, in the absence of the landlord, there may be collusion between the mukhtaridur and the tenant. It is therefore proposed to make it incumbent upon the tenant in such case to implead the landlord also as a respondent to his application.
